

Festival-Long Events

March 27 - 30 | Underexposed Film Festival yc Dina's Place, Winthrop University

The UFFyc is an award-winning, international, independent short film festival that showcases the best in indie filmmaking. Screened films focus on strength in storytelling, and include Q & A sessions with the filmmakers afterwards. Films were submitted from 30+ countries across all 7 continents. For full schedule & more information, visit underexposedfilmfestivalyc.org.

Drive the Arts: Rock Hill Public Art Tour Center for the Arts, 121 E. Main St., Rock Hill

Discover sculpture and art that mixes history and innovation on a self-guided tour. Maps at the Center for the Arts or womensartinitiative.org. Sponsored by the Women's Art Initiative.

March 28 - 30 | 10 am - 4 pm | "130 Years of Springs" Exhibit Fort Mill History Museum, 107 Clebourne St., Fort Mill

Springs Industries, Inc., once a leading textile manufacturer, began as an effort to save the lagging economy of a small southern town. It was for the people of Fort Mill that Samuel Elliott White and others organized the Fort Mill Manufacturing Company in 1887. With $52,500 and 10 acres of land, Captain White started a local project that would make Fort Mill the center of a global economy.

March 28 - 30 - 8 pm, March 31 - 2 pm | "At Home at the Zoo" Johnson Studio Theatre, 115 Johnson Hall

This two-act play by Edward Albee takes place in NYC. With dark humor, it explores both the love and the cruelty that we inflict on each other every day. Tickets: $10 on March 28 + 29; $15 on March 30 + 31.

March 29 + 30: 7:30 pm, March 31: 3 pm | Gianni Schicchi Opera Tillman Auditorium, Winthrop University

Jeffery McEvoy directs this production by Puccini ft. piano and singing in Italian. Adults: $15; Winthrop faculty and staff: $10; Winthrop student ID: $5

Thursday, March 28

Underexposed Film Festival yc Dina's Place, Winthrop University

Programming varies by day. For full schedule & more information, visit underexposedfilmfestivalyc.org.

Drive the Arts: Rock Hill Public Art Tour Center for the Arts, 121 E. Main St., Rock Hill

Maps for this self-guided tour available at the Center for the Arts or womensartinitiative.org.

9 am - 5 pm | Drawings & Paintings, works by Marge Moody Center for the Arts, 121 E. Main St., Rock Hill

Marge Moody's work is inspired by her experience of places, distant, close to home, and from her imagination. Marge's work describes the 'spirit' of place. She works thematically as each experience may suggest many possible visual outcomes. The work examines boundaries, addresses the fragility of existence, of presence, of absence, and of memory For more information, visit yorkcountyarts.org

10 am - 4 pm | "130 Years of Springs" Exhibit

Fort Mill History Museum, 107 Clebourne St., Fort Mill
Springs Industries, Inc., once a leading textile manufacturer, began as an effort to save the lagging economy of a small southern town. Full description under "Festival-Long Events."

11 am - 12 pm | Winthrop Authors Book Signing + Readings

Barnes & Noble Bookstore at Winthrop University
Winthrop Alumni Authors Sarah and Morri Creech read selections from their award-winning books.

5:30 - 8:00 pm | Opening Reception

The White Home, 258 E. White St., Rock Hill
Join us as we kick off the 2019 SC Humanities Festival in style with a taste of York County! There will be food trucks and local craft beer, information tables from various humanities groups, as well as entertainment, including a demonstration by the Catawba Indians and the introduction of the new Rock Hill Poet Laureate!

8 pm | "At Home at the Zoo"

Johnson Studio Theatre, 115 Johnson Hall
Full description under "Festival-long Events" Tickets: $10.

Friday, March 29

Drive the Arts: Rock Hill Public Art Tour Center for the Arts, 121 E. Main St., Rock Hill

Maps for this self-guided tour available at the Center for the Arts or womensartinitiative.org.

March 27 - 30 | Underexposed Film Festival yc Dina's Place, Winthrop University

Programming varies by day. For full schedule & more information, visit underexposedfilmfestivalyc.org.

9 am - 4 pm | Visual History Exhibits + Meet & Greet Artists McCelvey Center, 212 East Jefferson St., York

Two small exhibits using objects and artwork from the Culture and Heritage Museums' permanent collection, highlighting the York County perspective of two different time periods: The American Revolution and World War II. Meet & Greet with artists: Kelly Pauley, a historical painter and Dan Nance, a painter of historical battlefield drama.

9 am - 5 pm | Micro-Fiction Writing Contest Announcement Fort Mill Public Library, 1818 2nd Baxter Crossing, Fort Mill

Micro-fiction writing contest winner will be announced Friday, March 29. Winning submission will be available to read Friday, March 29- Saturday, March 30.

9 am - 5 pm | Drawings & Paintings, works by Marge Moody Center for the Arts, 121 E. Main St., Rock Hill

Marge Moody's work is inspired by her experience of places, distant, close to home, and from her imagination. Her work describes the 'spirit' of place. She works thematically as each experience may suggest many possible visual outcomes. The work examines boundaries, addresses the fragility of existence, of presence, of absence, and of memory For more information, visit yorkcountyarts.org

10 am - 4 pm | "130 Years of Springs" Exhibit

Fort Mill History Museum, 107 Clebourne St., Fort Mill
Full description under "Festival-Long Events."

10 - 11 am | Lecture

McCelvey Center, 212 East Jefferson St., York
Joseph C. Mester, Culture & Heritage Museums' historic preservation manager, talks about the architectural and building traditions of the Carolina Piedmont from its settlement in the mid-eighteenth century to the eve of the American Civil War.

10 - 11:30 am | Grant Writing Workshop

Rock Hill Main Library, Moore Room, 138 East Black St.
Led by SC Humanities staff, this free workshop will introduce participants to grants available to institutions planning to host public programs in the humanities. Registration required. Call 803-981-5825 or visit events.yclibrary.org to register.

10 am & 12 pm | Church Architecture Tour The White Home, 258 E. White St., Rock Hill

$5 per person (max. 20 people). Tickets & additional information at historicrockhill.com/tickets.

11 am - 12 pm | Winthrop Historians Presentations The Little Chapel at Winthrop University

The Louise Pettus Archives, Dr. Eddie Lee, and Dr. Jennifer Dixon-McKnight join forces to share stories about the history of South Carolina, specifically the Colonial South and Civil Rights.

11 am - 12 pm | Guided Hike

Anne Springs Close Greenway 288 Dairy Barn Ln., Fort Mill
Did you know that the Great Philadelphia Wagon Road runs right through the ASC Greenway? Come walk the Wagon Road and learn how an early Buffalo Trail became the main route for the Scots Irish settlers, and played a part in the Revolutionary and Civil Wars, and visit the two historic cabins. $5 entrance fee for non-members of ASC Greenway.

2 - 3 pm | Lecture

McCelvey Center, 212 East Jefferson St., York
Nancy Sambets, Culture & Heritage Museums' director of archives, highlights the years when the Barnett Bros. Circus quarters were in York.

3 pm | Bicycle Brewery Tour The White Home, 258 E. White St., Rock Hill

Tour Rock Hill's newest breweries and learn about Rock Hill history on bicycles - $5 per person (drinks not included). Tickets & additional info at historicrockhill.com/tickets.

3 - 5 pm | Walking Tours - York Historic District McCelvey Center, 212 East Jefferson St., York

Yorkville Historical Society offers self-guided & guided tours of the York Historic District, listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Meet in the McCelvey lobby. Pre-register: YorkvilleHistoricalSociety@gmail.com or call the Greater York Chamber of Commerce at 803.684.2590.

5 - 6 pm | Women of Winthrop University Poetry Readings Center for the Arts, 121 E Main St., Rock Hill

Honoring Women's History Month, Winthrop faculty (including Susan Ludvigson) read their poetry. *Also on Saturday 11 am - 12 pm, Archives at Winthrop

7 pm | Nocturnal Notions in Your National Park Kings Mountain National Military Park, 2625 Park Rd., Blacksburg

Night time activities such as lantern walk, sky gazing, campfire programs and more.

7:30 pm | Gianni Schicchi Opera Tillman Auditorium, Winthrop University

Full description under "Festival-Long Events." Adults: $15; Winthrop faculty and staff: $10; Winthrop student ID: $5

8 pm | "At Home at the Zoo"

Johnson Studio Theatre, 115 Johnson Hall
Full description under "Festival-long Events" Tickets: $10.

Saturday, March 30

Underexposed Film Festival yc Dina's Place, Winthrop University

The UFFyc is an award-winning, international, independent short film festival that showcases the best in indie filmmaking. Screened films focus on strength in storytelling, and include Q & A sessions with the filmmakers afterwards For full schedule & more information, visit underexposedfilmfestivalyc.org.

Drive the Arts: Rock Hill Public Art Tour Center for the Arts, 121 E. Main St., Rock Hill

Maps for this self-guided tour available at the Center for the Arts or womensartinitiative.org.

9 am - 2 pm | Exhibits: "One More Round of Applause" and "A House of Many Stories"

Louise Pettus Archive at Winthrop University
Through displays of books, documents, photographs, the exhibits celebrate 132 years of famous humanitarian guests to campus and writers in the collections. *also on Friday from 8:30 am - 5:00 pm.

Saturday, March 30

9 am - 5 pm | Micro-Fiction Writing Contest Announcement
Fort Mill Public Library, 1818 2nd Baxter Crossing, Fort Mill
Micro-fiction writing contest winner will be announced Friday, March 29. Winning submission will be available to read Friday, March 29- Saturday, March 30.

10 - 11 am | Guided Hike
Anne Springs Close Greenway 288 Dairy Barn Ln., Fort Mill
Did you know that the Great Philadelphia Wagon Road runs right through the ASC Greenway? Come walk the Wagon Road and learn how an early Buffalo Trail became the main route for the Scots Irish settlers, and played a part in the Revolutionary and Civil Wars, and visit the two historic cabins. $5 entrance fee for non-members of ASC Greenway.

10 am - 12 pm | Underexposed Film Festival yc | Improv Acting, & Directing Workshop with Rob Adler
Dina's Place, Winthrop University
Celebrity acting coach Rob Adler leads a masterclass for actors and filmmakers. In this participatory workshop, Adler will share tools to get you to deliver spontaneous and life-like performances on screen. You'll learn some of some of the secrets to screen presence, blending improvisation tools with classical acting techniques.

10 am - 4 pm | "130 Years of Springs" Exhibit
Fort Mill History Museum, 107 Clebourne St., Fort Mill
Springs Industries, Inc., once a leading textile manufacturer, began as an effort to save the lagging economy of a small southern town. Full description under "Festival-Long Events."

10 am - 4 pm | Children's Day on the Farm
Historic Brattonsville, 1444 Brattonsville Rd., McConnells
Get immersed in the agricultural heritage of the Carolina Piedmont during "Children's Day on the Farm." The annual family event focuses on farm life in the Carolina Piedmont during the 18th and 19th centuries. *General Admission: Adults $10, Seniors $8, Youth 4-7 $6; free for CHM members and ages 3 and under. Brattonsville Road closed from 9:30 am-4:45 pm. Look for detour.

10 am - 4 pm | 18th Century Colonial Festival
Kings Mountain National Military Park, 2625 Park Rd, Blacksburg
Immerse yourself in a Colonial celebration.

10:30 - 11:30 am | International Culture Club
Lake Wylie Public Library, 185 Blucher Circle, Lake Wylie
Become an international traveler without leaving the country! Visit Italy and learn about the language, the culture and best of all the food. No passport required. (Ages 5-11)

12 pm | Musical Instrument Petting Zoo
York Public Library, 21 E Liberty St, York
Downtown Music Lessons and More will provide a musical instrument petting zoo for all ages. No registration required.

12 - 3 pm | White Home Open House
The White Home, 258 E. White St., Rock Hill
Stop by the White Home and tour the historic home and learn the White Family and Rock Hill history. Tickets: $5.

2 pm | Stories of the Women at the Shelter
Salvation Army, 119 Charlotte Ave., Rock Hill
Winthrop University Arts & Medicine students read poems written by women of the shelter.

2 - 4 pm | Walking Tour - African American Historical Sites
Freedom Walkway, Downtown Rock Hill
Join the African American Cultural Resource Association for a walking tour of historical African American sites in downtown Rock Hill.

2 - 3:30 pm | Young Adult Poetry Slam
Rock Hill Main Library, 138 E Black St., Rock Hill
Share your spoken word creations in a relaxed atmosphere & compete for fame + gift cards from local sponsors. (Ages 11-17)

2 pm & 4 pm | Walking Tour - Historic Fort Mill
Fort Mill History Museum, 107 Clebourne St., Fort Mill
The Museum offers a guided tour of the historic district, including Main Street and the stately Founders House, with a few sips & nibbles along the way. Tours start at the museum. Ticket required ($25); purchase online at FMHM.org.

5 - 6 pm | Book Signing with Pat Veasey
Historic Brattonsville Visitor Orientation Room
Pat Veasey is an award-winning educator and author whose historical research delves into the lives of the people of the Brattonsville community through the 18th and 19th centuries. Pat will discuss her latest work "Relentless Catharine: Educator, Community Activist, and Author in Antebellum South Carolina." Light refreshments served. A free reception; Pre-register to mcheek@chmuseums.org.

6:30 - 8 pm | An Evening with The Friendship Nine & City Girls
Palmetto Room at McCrory's, 150 E. White St., Rock Hill
Dr. Adolphus Belk, Jr. hosts a panel of Friendship Nine and City Girls members, pioneers of Rock Hill's "Jail, No Bail" Civil Rights Movement.

7:30 pm | Gianni Schicchi Opera
Tillman Auditorium, Winthrop University
Full description under "Festival-Long Events." Adults: $15; Winthrop faculty and staff: $10; Winthrop student ID: $5

8 pm | "At Home at the Zoo"
Johnson Studio Theatre, 115 Johnson Hall
Full description under "Festival-long Events" Tickets: $15.

thank you to our participating partners!

For more information, please stop by the York County Visitor Center
130 E. Main Street
Rock Hill, SC 29730
803.329.5200
visityorkcounty.com

2019 SC Humanities Festival

presented by
Visit York County

● March 28 - March 30 ●

Download the Visit York County, SC app for the the full schedule at your fingertips, as well as nearby restaurants and lodging!

visityorkcounty.com
schumanities.org