

MAKING BLACK WOMEN'S POLITICAL WORK VISIBLE

Join us for the next segment in our "Picturing Democracy" series as we hear from Dr. Laura Lovett, professor in the department of History at the University of Pittsburgh.

October 13th, 2022 6-7:30 PM
Self Auditorium in the Strom
Thurmond Center at Clemson
University. Open to the Public!

Made possible with the generous support of The South Carolina Humanities "Picturing Democracy" Initiative and the Federation of State Humanities Councils for their administration of funding provided by the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation for "Democracy and the Informed Citizen". Also featuring the scholarship of Dr. Carlyn Ferrari, Seattle University.

The Clemson University Strom Thurmond Institute is located at 230 Kappa Street, Clemson SC 29634.

Strom Thurmond Institute has metered parking for visitors along the Kappa Street road entrance off Perimeter Road. Additional parking is also available at the Brooks Center parking lot (intersection of Perimeter and Cherry Road) in the orange painted spaces without a white Brooks Center logo.
